About Guru Nanak Dev University

Guru Nanak Dev University was established at Amritsar, India on November 24, 1969 to commemorate Guru Nanak Dev's birth quincentenary celebrations. The university has marked its emblem across the globe and is continuing its journey of achieving new heights in pursuance of its cherished goals. University Grants Commission (UGC) has granted category-1 status to the university, the only university to get this ELITE STATUS in the region of Punjab , Haryana, Himachal Pradesh & Chandigarh. Improving its rank from last year, Guru Nanak Dev University has been ranked 59 in the All - India university ranking released under the national institution ranking framework (NIRF) by the Ministry of Human Resource Development (MHRD), Govt. of India. Guru Nanak Dev University (GNDU) being a State University became the first university to get approval of School of Education. The SOE endeavors to provide programmes of excellence in pre-service and in-service education prospective and practicing teachers through teaching and learning, research, consultancy, publication and community services.

About The Workshop

School of Education (PMMMNMTT), of Guru Nanak Dev University is organizing a two days workshop on 'How to Avoid Plagiarism' under Pandit Madan Mohan Malaviya National Mission on Teacher and Teaching. The purpose of this workshop is to learn tools to avoid plagiarism in order to write with integrity because Plagiarism is a serious threat plaguing the research in publication globally. There is an increasing need to address the issue of plagiarism especially among young researchers in the developing part of the world. Plagiarism needs to be earnestly discouraged to ensure a plagiarism free research environment.
